Chapel by Colton

On Wednesday in chapel sang "The King Shall Come When Morning Dawns". Next we did opening verses. Then we read Numbers 22: 27-30. Then we did some more opening verses. Then we read Matthew 21:1-11. After that we sang "All Glory Laud and Honor". Then we talked about donkeys. Then we prayed.

Religion by Ava

On Monday our lesson was about how Jesus loves us and came to die on the cross! He was born to save us!

Grammar by Julie

On Monday we played a game with I and me. We had to fill in blanks with I and me. After that we did a worksheet called Using I and Me. On Tuesday we learned about homophones. Homophones sound the same way but have different meanings. For example there is dear in a letter and deer the animal. We learned a lot. Some of it we even filled in blanks with homophones. On Wednesday we did a worksheet on more homophones. On Friday we learned about a predication chart.

Math by Parker

On Monday we did Lesson 48. It was called "Finding Fractions and Mixed Numbers on a Number Line". Then we learned "Comparing Fractions, Part 2" in Lesson 49 on Tuesday. On Wednesday we did Lesson 50. It was called "Probability, Part 2". Thursday we took a test. On Friday, we played a game about probability.

Social Studies by Charlotte

On Monday we talked about natural resources and the Earth's minerals. Some minerals are gold, iron, copper, and salt. Our vocabulary words are natural resource, minerals, renewable, nonrenewable, and fuel. On Thursday and Friday we reviewed for our test on Monday.

Reading by Logan

On Monday we got started on our new worksheet and we have a new unit. Our story for today is called "Ideas from Nature". Then we watched a video about the story. Then we said our words to know for the week. To learn the word identical, Mrs. Reida quizzed us using pencils. At the end Mrs. Reida tricked us!!!! Then we read an expository text called "Bats Did It First". Expository text means it has captions, diagrams, side bars, real pictures, and headings. Then we did our worksheet. On Tuesday we had no reading because of Christmas concert practice. On Wednesday we got started on our worksheets with a story called "A Sticky Idea". After we read our story, we answer the questions on the other page. On Thursday we had no reading because we had Christmas concert practice. On Friday we read a story called "Big Ideas From Nature". It is an expository text. For example, it has headings, diagrams, captions, and side bars. Our vocabulary words are model, identical, similar, example, and effect.

Computer by Jules

On Monday we started with typing.com. Next, others finished their PowerPoint and the kids who were done got to do Christmas coding. On Wednesday we started with typing.com. Next, we did Snowline.
